I guess the only reason I still play Roblox is because it's a free game and that I don't have to pay for anything. After all, what's the point of saving up your money if you have to spend it all just to try and get on a game you really want to play? There are many games out there that aren't free like Minecraft, but at least they give you some sort of advantage. For example, Minecraft gives you tools which can help you dig more efficiently and quickly. But Roblox doesn't provide any sort of help or assistance towards the gameplay itself. And it's not like Minecraft was designed with children in mind; it was created for adults.

- The game is too expensive. I cringe when I see that a certain hat costs 2 million Robux. Robux are the currency used in Roblox, and I have no idea where to get them in game. But it's pretty obvious that you have to pay real money for them or use your parents' credit card to access the store. And if you do use your parents' credit card, then they'll try to find out why you were so interested in a child's game and they will most certainly look at the Roblox website or app, which will reveal that there are so many games with suggestive themes/language that it will make your eyes bleed (and your mom/dad's too).
